SEPTEMBER

Through October 4
Art Center Exhibition
Art & Zoology, a small installation belongs to Art, Science, and Technology, an ongoing series anticipating the opening of the new Science Center in Spring 2016. Together, the works demonstrate some of the ways in which artists helped to advance the evolving field of natural history and zoology through the observation and depiction of animals.
The Frances Lehman Loeb Art Center, Landing Gallery

Through October 19
Art Library Exhibition
Posters in Miniature: The Ephemeral Cinderella is an exhibition of poster stamp, a popular but almost forgotten form of graphic advertising in Europe and America between the 1870’s and the 1920’s.
Vassar College Art Library

Through December 20
Art Center Exhibition
Asian Art at Vassar features a wide range of works from countries across Asia from the Art Center’s permanent collection. Among the highlights on display are sketches created in India around 1825 depicting a Rajaipur king; a 16th-c. Chinese scroll; a Tibetan painting on fabric; a Japanese folding screen with farming scenes by Kano Eino; and an ink painting of men taming horses by Frosa Shokaha. Also on view from mid-October to mid-December are contemporary Japanese photographs from the permanent collection.
